My family and I went out for an outing last weekend. We took half an hour to travel by minibus to go to the campsite.

We were having a barbecue. Suddenly, it started to rain. We ran quickly to a nearby tree, hoping the rain would stop.

However, we waited for two hours until the rain stopped. The whole campsite looked like a swamp, so we decided to eat at a restaurant instead.

We weren't happy with this day's outing. It was terrible!
