Part B (i) Reading passage (40 marks)

The old man had three sons. They were different from one another. The eldest son was very fit. He could lift up heavy things. He was as strong as an ox.

The second son thought he was the most handsome man in the world. He walked around with his nose in the air. He was as proud as a peacock.

The youngest son was not clever at all. The village people often lied to him but he never noticed. He was as silly as a goose.

Part B (ii) Learn by Heart (20 marks)

1. My father is as hard-working as an ant. He is tall like a mountain.
2. My mother is as busy as a bee. Her cheeks are red like roses.
